Summary: Left on bases—Richmond, St Norfolk, 5. Hit by pitched ball—S. Griffin, Bresnahan. Time of game—One hour and twenty-five minutes. Umpires—Noreum and Williams.

BY GUS MALBERT.

The Wise Vourig Man sat in the amen corner. It wasn't his regular place to sit. Ordinarily he might have been found somewhere between the place ball games are played and the particularly pleasant spot whereon or wherein ball players are criticized.

But yesterday he was all snugly fitted out in the amen corner. Many of his bosom companions. Glooms by name, surrounded him and listened to his erudite expositions upon the evanescence of base-hall glory. Just as the Wise Young Man was about to put his clinching arguments forward—he was discussing the inability of Mr. Eberts to safely hit the ball and the utter rout of Mr. Harold Griffin on more than one occasion-the boy who works the scoreloai end of the entertainment hung out the information that Richmond had beaten Norfolk two runs to Norfolk's none.

It is highly probable that the local management will be shy one patron when time is called to-day. Mr. Wise Young Man will undoubtedly stay at home. No prophet will willingly stand the taunts of the public when he realizes that there is something shy in his transmission. There were two appreciable links missing in the propheting performance of the Wise Young Man yesterday.

In the first place, Harold Griffin happened to pitch a magnificent game of ball. Likewise Mr. Harold Griffin won his ball game, simply because Bud Ryan and the fellows who travel with him were unable to hit what Mr. Harold Griffin was flinging, while the Griffmen tantalized Mr. Lefty Weeder rather suc-

In the second place, our Mr. Ducky Eberts—Ducky really lsn't his front name at all, it merely describes the shape of his legs—after several weeks of somnolence, awakened and smote the pill thrice in one afternoon to safe corners of the lot. In the parlance of the tribe, Ducky knocked the pellet three times to such corners of the yard where defensive fielders were not.

Putting down in black type that Harry Griffin pitched a four-hit, no-score game, and that Ducky Eberts had come back into his own as a hitter, is guite enough, or should be, to satisfy the reading public for one day.

The one bright ray is that the Colts to have returned to that better.

seem to have returned to that batting stride which, earlier in the season, made it appear that they would have little trouble winning over all of the five competitors.

Griffin to Try Out New Men

Jack Bentley, of Washington, or rather of Sandy Springs, Md., counted one of the best portpaws in that section, is expected to join the Colts to-day. He comes highly recommended by Jack Ryan, scout for the Washington team. Should Bentley arrive, and transportation was sent him several days ago, he will be given an opportunity to show what he has at once.

Pitcher Blanton, of the Ashland team, is another recruit who will be given a chance this week. Young Tignor, who has done such good work with the Grays, of the Capital City League, the leading organization among the amateurs, may also be given a trial by Manager Griffin.

Charlie Strain is still on the sick list. Bonesetter Henry, of the Hygeia Hospital, says that Strain is suffering from cold in the shoulder, probably contracted during one of the raw days last week, and will not be able to work until the latter part of

It was not until the fifth that a run was scored. Newton led with a hit and stole second. With the hit-and-not beginning as a strong favorite. He won the first two heats, but was beaten in the next three by the Murphy pacer. # FORMER CHAMPION

Garden City, N. Y., August 14.-After an exciting finish in the open championship tournament of the Metropolitan Golf Association at the Salisbury links to-day, Alec Smith, the Wykagyl Club's professional, won the title by a margin of one stroke from Tommie McNamara, of Boston, who won the championship honors a year ago.

Smith made the best round during the tournament when he turned in a card of seventy in the third round early to-day, but he putted poorly in the final round for seventy-five, which made his total for seventy-two holes,

John J. McDermott, of Atlantic City, national open champion, who had led the big field from the start, was looked upon as a sure winner after Smith's score was seen. He, too, was weak in putting and his final effort, a seventy-nine, placed him three strokes behind nine, placed him three strokes behind Smith, with a total of 294.

McNamara was going nicely at this stage as he went out in thirty-six holes on his final journey and needed a thirty-four coming in to win. He was unequal to the task, on the home green he had a twelve-foot put for a four, which would have tied Smith, but he missed and was down in five for a round of seventy-two, making his ag-gregate for the four rounds, 292. Oswald Kirky, of Englewood, N. J., led the amateurs with a total of 311.

PLAYERS GATHER TO TALK THINGS OVER

Griffmen Get Better Acquainted With Management of Team at Informal Reception Last Night. Expect to Land Pennant Yet.

"Better Acquaintance Week" was officially inaugurated last night on the sub, or rather super, roof of the Richmond Hotel. Of course, the captains of industry will tell you that the jovial hand of fellowship has been extended and accepted ever since last Monday. In a measure they are right, but only in a measure.

Leaving the captains of industry for a moment and coming back to that cozy place Sam Atkinson fitted out for his bosom friends just atop of the roof of the roof garden, the Richmond base, ball club, plus a few friends, was entertained last night by President Thomas B. McAdams, Secretary W. B. Bradley and the directors of the Broad Street Park Baseball Corporation.

It was definitely determined that Richmond should win the pennant in the Virginia League this senson. Many were of the opinion that something might happen to prevent it all happening as planned, but all were positive that if the pennant did not fly from the masthead in the local yard, it would
